Letter from the Baron and Baroness

Greetings Stromgard! Happy New Year Gregorian!

We both had wonderful holidays with family and friends and hope all of you had likewise.

We now have our sites set on An Tir's 12th Night Coronation and events beyond, not the least of which is Stromgard's own Founding Revel where the tournament to choose the next StormMaker will be held. This tournament is open to any who wish to test themselves and is an excellent warm up for the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Championship in March. We will also accept the yearly taxes at Founding Revel Court.!

Our current Sergeantry Candidates should be finishing up their trials at Founding Revel as well. We'd also like you to note that we will accept letters of intent for the next years trials.. If you have questions please contact Us or any of the current members of Stromgard's Sergeantry.

It is difficult to fathom yet, with the coming of Spring in a few months will come the beginning of our final year as Lord and Lady Stromgard. It is not too soon for you, the people of these lands we hold in fief, to look to the future and begin to ponder the possibility of following us as Baron and Baroness in A. S. 54 (2019). We are available to discuss with you any questions you may have regarding the position and the process by which our successors will be chosen. We will announce the tentative timeline, procedures and our expectations in May.

In Service to the Crown,

Ivon & Hlutwige

P.S. Stromgard's StormMaker Tournament (Arts and Sciences Champion) will once again take place at our Founding Revel, February 24th in Camas, Washington at the Community Center. We have determined that only 6 competitors will be accepted, due to space limitations. Should you find yourself interested in committing to the competition, send a note to us and the current StormMaker Aedan with your intent at stromgardbaronandbaroness@gmail.com and fingolfen@yahoo.com

StormMaker Tournament

Ivon and Hlutwige, Lord and Lady Stromgard herewith invite all to vie for the honour of being named their StormMaker, Champion of the Arts and Sciences of the Barony of Stromgard at Founding Revel, February 24 (2018) in the Barony of Stromgard. Those wishing to compete for this title must inform Their Excellencies via electronic communique no later than February 10 (2018) and be prepared to present a Letter of Intent at morning court at the event.

Each competitor is required to research and document two (2) complete and distinct entries plus an entry to be created on site the day of the tournament (see "Mystery Box" below).
Competitors are required to make a fire using flint and steel as well as use the fire in some way in their third entry. Each competitor is allowed a small outdoor space for a "camp" within which they may present the first two entries and prepare the third. Competitors will need a fire pit in which to build fire. Various tinders, some wood and charcoal will be provided.

Now, to the matter of the third entry;
Competitors are allowed to have one person who will serve as adviser/assistant/helper. Please advise us as to who will be serving as such in your Letter of Intent. Each competitor will be given a "Mystery Box" filled with various items (all Mystery Boxes will have like contents). The competitor and their adviser will have 10 minutes to work out a plan for the entry based on the contents of the Mystery Box. There will be several areas of the arts and sciences to choose from. Once competitors have made a decision, they and their advisers will visit the "sideboard" for five minutes. Competitors and their adviser may trade item for item from the Mystery Box to the sideboard for needed/wanted items. Competitors may also choose to trade item for item with each other. An attempt at more than one finished item is encouraged. It is worth noting that the competitor should be the main source of ideas and execution of the entry (s).

Time is up! Competitors and their advisers will have three hours to create the third entry using the items in the Mystery Box and the fire the competitor must build.

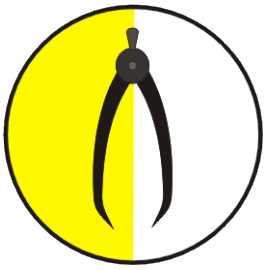

If you feel you have what it takes to be Stromgard's Champion, to be the StormMaker, wear the cloak, display your work, prove your skill; then send your intent to:

Officers Reports

Seneschal Qara present, written report
I want to say thank you to all of you for your patience and your help during my term as Seneschal. I have learned a lot from all of you and have gained a deeper respect for this office. I urge each and everyone of you to try something new this year, an officer position you wouldn't normally take, running an event, or teaching a class. It is well worth it.
I am looking forward to helping Alex out as he steps up as Seneschal. I believe he will do a great job in serving the barony.
I am looking forward to taking a little time to reflect on what I have learned and what I can improve on. I am excited to run another event in the future and possibly even a new officer position in the barony.
Again I thank you all.
Yours in Service,
Qara

Family Activities: Annora present, written report
Greetings Stromgard! I am happy to report that much delight and laughter was had by many children at our most recent event, the Tri-Baronial Yule! Large hordes of children happily piled frosting and candy onto their Holiday-shaped cookies at the cookie decorating activity I hosted. A huge thank you to Penny who donated cookies, frosting, and sprinkles for that event. Later on that same day, I managed to teach six children how to cut-out eight-sided decorative snowflakes. I'm very grateful for the wisdom of Illaria, who took the time to show me how to create the proper and by far the more correct version of a six-sided snowflake. New skills were learned and fun was had by all at this activity. Looking ahead for children's activities at our upcoming event Founding Revel, I am currently in the process of coordinating children's classes, so far we have two volunteers: Jed has volunteered to host a class about medieval games and Penny has volunteered to teach a children's dance class. I am planning to have other entertaining activities and games for children as well.

Greetings to their Excellency's, Baron and Baroness of Stromgard, Here is December's Chamberlain Report.
Sorry I can not be in attendance traveling for business in the Barony of Adiantum.
Had a great time at Tri-Baronial Yule. Transported table clothes to the event and returned to rightful places, table clothes washed and ready to go. We need to look at new tablecloths most have oil and stains.
I will need list of requirements for Founding Revel since it is quickly approaching.

Arts and Science: AElfwynn present, written report
Unto Their Excellencies Stromgard and The Good Gentles of Stromgard
We had one meeting in December where we had a cookie exchange and social time. The third Tuesday was been cancelled due to the holidays. The first meeting in January was a Landsknecht hat making class that was very well attended. My house was packed with about 10 people fitting hat patterns and learning both traditional and semi-traditional methods.
The next meeting in January, the 16th, will be covering smocking techniques.

Greetings Stromgard!
Your chatelaine reports the following has occurred:

Had phone inquiry from a newcomer interested in Founding Revel who had attended the Library demo in October, I am delighted and eternally grateful for the support the Barony continues to show to newcomers, on a one-to-one basis, both through social media and in person. It takes a Populace to welcome newcomers properly, to help them find their niche, answer questions and encourage them as they find their tribe and their way in the SCA.
Many Thanks to Annora & Feradach for the following Upcoming Stromgard Get-Together:
January social persona night will be hosted by Annora & (Alise & Vern) at their home. Bring yourselves, bring newcomers, etc. Great way to get to know folks, enjoy some merriment and maybe learn something "cultural". Information available on Facebook and the Stream. January 19, 7 to 10pm. Children welcome. Their invitation is as follows:
Willkommen! Annora and Feradach (Alise and Vern) are hosting the January Stromgard Social Night: a German Renaissance theme. All are welcome to come, relax and socialize. Feel free to invite SCA friends and newcomers. We will provide Bratwurst, Saurkraut, German potato salad, spaetzle, glüwein (mulled wine), and of course, bier! You are encouraged to bring a dish of your own, German or not, to share. Children are welcome! We'll have patio heaters and a backstop for thrown weapons, so bring your axes and knives!

It is now January. My term as your Chatelaine will end in March. I have one person who is interested in taking on the office. If anyone else is also interested, I believe the custom is to bring a letter of intent to the Council meeting. I sincerely and deeply thank you for the assistance, warmth and kindness Stromgard and the Tri-Barony have graciously shown me during my term as Chatelaine. Any accomplishments during this tiime I attribute solely to the generosity and support of the populace. You folks are outstanding. I salute you, and am honored to know you.
Yours in Service,
Helvi

Helvi also informed council that she had been contacted by a reporter. The reporter might come out to Founding Revel.

Gold Key: Donatella present, written report
Greetings to Their Excellencies and to the noble people of Stromgard.
As mentioned in last month's report, Helvi and I took two totes of loaner garb, a clothing rack and a bunch of hangers to Tri-Baronial Yule at the request of Sorcha to make sure there was plenty of loaner garb available. As Sorcha had had a hellish week dealing with seriously bad things, she was understandably pretty shredded and she asked me to please run Gold Key for the event which i was happy to do. There were quite a few newcomers at the event, several more than I was expecting, so I kept busy getting them in garb. I don't know if any of them planned on staying the entire event or not but only one newcomer that I'm aware of stayed for the feast, most leaving within a couple hours. Of those people I could speak with as they were leaving, I did recommend they contact their Baronial Chatelaines and/or check on line for newcomer events and other informational sites to learn more about what we're all about and see what might interest them. Hopefully some of them will come back.
YIS,
Donnina (Donatella) Donatelli

Knight Marshal: Kjartan absent, Written report from Duncan.
Attendance has been light during the holiday season, with only 6 to 7 fighters showing up to practice. Even though the numbers have been down, the fighting has been good. There are no injuries to report.

Archery Marshal: Refskegg present, written report
Greetings Stromgard,
We held our first winter practice at Duncans in December. In the spirit of the holidays we made it a novelty Yule shoot. Who knew the motivator of candy would work so well. The wreaths were thoroughly destroyed. We had a great turnout. Next practice will be held the 21st so come out and shoot with us!
We also had our first (to my knowledge) YAFA division 2 but I will let Annora brag about that more.
While not technically hosted by us the adult youth throwing competition at Yule was hosted by our own throwing marshal and consisted of a good many of our citizens. It was a lot of fun and judging by the spread of trailhawks between Yule and my trips to Terra Pomeria I think we are spreading our influence nicely.
The throwing range is coming along nicely, Mattias will have it up and running soon!

Refskegg of House Bread

Thrown Weapons Marshall:
Matthias present, written report
To Their Excellencies Ivan and Hlutwige and to the Populace of Stromgard:
At the Tri-Baronial Yule I ran an Adult/Youth competition with two of my axes as the prizes.
There were 8 sets of competitors with the winners being Jerry and Sammi (I'm no remembering their SCA names, sorry).
The youth were inspired enough by the fun that several talked Jed/Refskeg into staying on to marshall so they could continue to throw. We appear to have some very good competitors coming along!

Tri-Barony Yule—2017
Event Stewards from Dragon's Mist attended meeting to report.

(Following taken from Dragon Mist Newletter) HL Ronan MacGuaire, L Gundahar Holtzsson, Livy Astrajord — 214 attendees, 178 adults, 11 youths, 25 children. The event came in under budget. The recommendation will be made to make future Yules Tri-Baronial. The site owner was very happy with the state of the site after the event. It was better than when it was handed over to us, and the site owners would like to have us back. The business that provided tables and chairs were extremely helpful, with a quick turnaround and being very accommodating. We will want to use that business again should we use the Armory site again.

Event Stewards report that the cost of the event is $811 per barony. If anything is owed, Ana will contact exchequer.

Founding Revel and Arts & Science Championship—2018
Good Evening to their Excellencies and the noble Barony of Stromgard. Founding Revel is coming along nicely.
I will reaching out to Ronan for items and will be nailing down the final to dos with my great team in the next week.

To Their Excellencies Ivan and Hlutwige and to the Populace of Stromgard:
Things are progressing in preparation for the event.
I continue to try to get in touch with the folks at Honey Bucket, with no success thus far… may have to make a personal appearance at their offices. Apparently there is only one person in charge of booking the region and she has been "too busy" to return calls or gone from the office for the last three months.
I have spoken with Drifa and gotten the definite okay for the site and the site fee. I am working on getting a contract signed with her and her family.
I have most of my core event staff lined up, just filling in a couple blanks.
I have spoken with Ronan MacGuire who is in charge of July Coronation to start coordinating our joint usage of the biffies and the trash receptacle.
More to come as we get closer to the event.

Letters of Intents for Open Offices

Greetings to Baron Ivon, Baroness Hlutwige and the glorious citizens of the Barony of Stromgard,

Do I, HL Edica Siyah Dian send warm greetings,

This is my letter of intent to fill the vacant office of Baronial Scribe for the Barony of Stromgard.

I have been a member of the SCA for seventeen years. First in the Barony of Terra Pomaria, then for many years in the Barony of Three Mountains. Only to have returned to my childhood land of Stromgard at long last (2015). I have previously held office in the Barony of Three Mountains of Gold Key. I've also have been event steward of a number of Barony Events during my time there.
In Stromgard I have been head of feast staff for Yule 2014/2015.

Mundanely, I am Wenonah Curry and work for a European Wind Turbine Company in the US.
I am in the construction department and work as a project assistant, super user and analyst.
I am extremely organized, communicative, very familiar with confidential work.
I feel my abilities would translate well in the Baronial Scribe office. Tracking awards, communicating with their Excellencies and with the Scribal community of which i am honored to know so many.
I also understand and would be able to commit the time for the transition to our new Excellencies in the next few years knowing it will be a very busy time.

As a lesser office of the Herald it is my hope to be a valuable aide to him in glory of the Barony.
In Service, Edica

Unto Their Excellencies Ivan and Hlutwige, Baron and Baroness
And to the Populace of the Glorious Barony of Stromgard,

I hereby come to you and humbly present my name for consideration of the position of Baronial Herald.

I come without experience, but an eagerness to learn the position. To that end, I have already sought out heraldic advisors and tutors to speed me in my gathering of knowledge should you see fit to grant me my desire to become Baronial Herald.

Lord Mattias von Schwartzenberg
